

EnTelegent Adds Mark Sondergaard as Vice President of Sales

EnTelegent Solutions Positioned for Continued Growth with New Hire

Charlotte, NC— August 19, 2021 — EnTelegent Solutions, Inc. (ESI) announced today the addition of Mark Sondergaard, an award-winning Channel Sales Leader and industry veteran as, Vice President of Sales. Sondergaard will focus on driving ease of doing business initiatives, partner development and relationships, and growth of the channel management team while ensuring that our customer and partner requirements drive the continued evolution of our products and integrated support platforms.

A 25-year channel veteran, Sondergaard comes to EnTelegent after successfully serving as National Director of Partner Sales for BullsEye Telecom, where he advanced their enterprise digital phone and internet service sales.

Before BullsEye, Sondergaard held various supplier-side sales management positions and also served on the master agent-side of the business, working for World Telecom Group as Vice President of Sales.

“We are thrilled to have Mark leading our sales initiatives. The impact of his sales expertise, organizational leadership, and knowledge of the Channel in combination with his wide-ranging product knowledge will catalyze our continued growth,” said Tom Turpin, CEO at EnTelegent Solutions.

“Throughout my career, I have always taken a dynamic, entrepreneurial approach to technology sales management. EnTelegent Solutions is a perfect fit. I am truly excited to take the organization to the next level,” said Mark Sondergaard.
